

The Battle of the Badges

On Saturday the 30th of March the Police Service of Northern Ireland will host the New York Fire Department in Belfast for a boxing tournament at the historic Ulster hall.

For the first time we will see a combined police team with members from the Garda and PSNI boxing club's join forces for this international tournament.

The FDNY will be bringing a travelling party of 14 to Belfast and with a bill of 12 bouts it promises to be a great nights entertainment. Tickets are priced at £20. Contact details can be found on the attached poster.
