

Vacancy: Ulster Regional Performance Coach

The Irish Athletic Boxing Association (IABA) is wishing to recruit a Regional Performance Coach, with the successful candidate to work in the Ulster High Performance Unit in Jordanstown, Belfast. Boxing is Ireland's most successful Olympic sport with a rich history of medal winning performances across multiple Games. Northern Ireland (NI) has produced some of the countries most talented boxers and Ulster Boxing contributes significantly to Team NI and Commonwealth Games success.

The Ulster program is an important part of the overall IABA approach to high performance development and sustainable world class performances on an international stage. This is a great opportunity for a suitably qualified and motivated coach to make a difference in both a local setting and to the National program.

This exciting role will require a strong technical and tactical knowledge of Boxing, high level planning and communication skills, proficient computer literacy, a good understanding of athlete development and a proven commitment to the development of high performance Boxing.

Duties and Responsibilities:

To assist in the design of relevant training programs within the Ulster High-Performance Unit. To be present when requested in a coaching capacity at all levels of squad training, training camps, sparring camps and international competitions, at home and abroad.

1. Assist and contribute to Ulster High Performance Unit (HPU) in directing, monitoring and evaluating the impact of training and competition programs and services to athletes.
2. Coach and prepare athletes for a range of competitions throughout the year and participate in training camps as agreed with Ulster High Performance Lead.
3. Along with other coaches, plan, prepare and deliver coaching sessions.
4. Work harmoniously with staff members of the IABA, Volunteers, Club Coaches, Sport Northern Ireland (SNI) and the Sport Institute of Northern Ireland (SINI) on all aspects of the performance program.
5. Alongside relevant performance colleagues, work collaboratively within a multi-disciplinary team in relation to the regional and national teams.
6. Embrace both full time and part time athletes into the HP Programme as appropriate for athletes at different developmental stages.
7. In consultation with the Head Coach and SINI sport science and sports medicine service providers, design, develop and implement periodised training programmes for boxers of all levels within the HPU.
8. To monitor, in partnership with SINI key service providers, the progress of individual boxers towards their goals and targets.
9. To assist in managing the training programs for the various strands of competition within Ulster HPU.
10. To input into Talent Identification and Athlete Development Pathways as required.
11. To contribute to the development and implementation of the National and Regional HP Strategy.

12. Maintain an accurate register of athlete progress and provide accurate reporting on each athlete as requested by the Performance Lead.
13. Provide monthly progress reports on both competition and training camps as required.
14. To develop and deliver session plans and maintain a record of the plans delivered.
15. Provide cover where appropriate or necessary for HP coaching colleagues and Head Coach on a needs basis.
16. Assist with the development of club coaches with seminars, training and mentoring.
17. When and if required to lead on activities and initiatives of the programme as directed by the Performance Director, Performance Coordinator and or Head Coach.
