- (iv) The Promotion and holding of boxing tournaments and championships.
- (v) Granting permission for the holding of tournaments and championships.
- (vi) Allotting championships to bodies affiliated to the Company, or substantially comprising of the members of the Company, at national, provincial, county and club level as desirable.
- (vii) To promote or take part in international contests and to further the position of Irish boxing at international level in any way that is desirable.
- (viii) To select individuals and teams to take part in international competition.

- (ix) To strive to involve the members of the Company in the activities of the Company and in promotion and attainment of the main objects.
- (x) To advance, organise and control the sport of boxing in Ireland.
- (xi) To be the sole arbiter in Ireland with reference to rules, championships, international competitions, disputes and other matters relating to the sport of boxing in Ireland under Global Boxing Organisation Regulations.
- (xii) To set and maintain the standards required of coaches, controllers, planners and event organisers at various levels.
- (xiii) To appeal for, collect and receive money on behalf of the Company.
- (xiv) To develop, publish and administer the rules of boxing in Ireland provided such rules are in compliance with International Boxing Federation Regulations.
- (xv) To comply with statutory regulations and obligations relating to national governing bodies; and
- (xvi) To do all such things as shall be conducive to the attainment of the main object.

RULE 4. INTERNATIONAL AFFILIATION

- 1 IABA shall affiliate to an International Boxing Federation and the Continental Boxing Confederation and as part of this affiliation will act as the National Governing Body in Ireland for all disciplines of boxing coming within the remit of the International Boxing Federation and the Continental Boxing Confederation. As part of this affiliation IABA shall be bound by the statutes, constitution, bye laws, codes, rules, and regulations which apply to all members of the International Boxing Federation and the Continental Confederation
- 2 IABA shall be a member of the Olympic Federation of Ireland and shall be the sole representative of the sport of boxing in this regard.

RULE 5. MEMBERSHIP

- 1 Members of IABA are those admitted to membership as set out in the Constitution and are specifically:
  - a) Affiliated Boxing Clubs
- 2 Boxers, Participants, and officials are also deemed through their Club membership to be members of the IABA and as such are bound by these rules and must complete the appropriate membership form with their club.
- 3 Honorary membership may be conferred by the Board as it may determine. Unless a shorter period is stipulated at the time of conferring, honorary membership shall be conferred for life. Honorary members shall not be entitled to vote but may attend and participate at any meeting.
- 4 The organisation belongs to the Members recognised under these Rules. Members have rights and obligations as set out under these Rules and under the Constitution.

RULE 6. MEMBERSHIP - APPLICATION AND AFFILIATION

- 1 A Club shall be affiliated as a Member of IABA only after it has fully completed the relevant online forms and paid its annual affiliation and insurance fees subject to the rules set out below.
- 2 Affiliations shall be automatically directed to the following.

- (i) Any individual Member participating in boxing, training or physical activities associated with boxing be it Club, County Board or Provincial Council must have completed the Member acknowledgement form.

5 As membership applications contain personal data every Member who handles, processes, or stores such applications must ensure they are acting in compliance with General Data Protection Requirements ("GDPR"). Under this legislation members must.

- Obtain and process the information fairly.
- Keep it only for one or more specified and lawful purposes.
- Process it only in ways compatible with the purposes for which it was given initially.
- Keep it safe and secure.
- Keep it accurate and up to date.
- Ensure that it is adequate, relevant, and not excessive.
- Retain it no longer than is necessary for the specified purpose or purposes.
- Give a copy of personal data to any individual, on request; and
- Delete it on request.

Breaches of the legislation incur significant fines and investigations from the Data Protection Office. Legislation also places other obligations such as how sensitive personal data (e.g. medical and vetting information) is managed and how data is used for commercial purposes. Members must comply with the IABA Data Protection Policy, and the secretary of the relevant body shall be responsible for ensuring compliance of its own body.

6 Any club which fails to affiliate within the timeline stipulated at 6.2 above may affiliate at a later stage. However, during the intervening period such club shall not be insured and may not engage in any boxing activities.

7 Any disputes regarding membership or affiliation shall be dealt with through the complaint's procedure.

8 Affiliation fees include the following.
